1. MUDAH

I have ___ my homework.

Jawaban: B. finished

Present perfect: have/has + past participle. Finish → finished.

2. MUDAH

A word with a similar meaning to significant is ....

Jawaban: A. important

Significant means important or large enough to be noticed.

---

3. MUDAH

The main purpose of a report text is to ....

Jawaban: A. describe things in general, based on facts

A report text describes a class of things in general, for example "Mangroves" or "Volcanoes", using facts.

4. SEDANG

The scientist ___ discovered the vaccine received an award.

Jawaban: A. who

Use who for people in a relative clause. Use which for things and where for places.

5. SEDANG

If I ___ a bird, I would fly over the sea.

Jawaban: B. were

Second conditional for imaginary situations: if + past (were for all subjects), would + verb.

6. SEDANG

She enjoys ___ novels in her free time.

Jawaban: C. reading

After enjoy, use a gerund (verb + -ing): enjoys reading.

7. SULIT

Read the text.

> Mangrove forests grow along tropical coasts. Their roots slow down waves and hold mud in place, so they protect the coast from erosion. Mangroves also store large amounts of carbon in their soil. However, many mangrove areas have been cleared for fish ponds and new buildings.

What is the main idea of the text?

Jawaban: A. Mangroves are useful, but they are under threat.

Most of the text explains how mangroves help (protection, carbon storage). The last sentence, starting with "However", shows the threat. The main idea combines both.

8. SULIT

In the text, the word However signals ....

Jawaban: A. a contrast

"However" introduces an idea that contrasts with the one before: mangroves are useful, however they are being cleared.

9. SULIT

"Mangroves also store large amounts of carbon in their soil." Here, store means ....

Jawaban: A. keep or hold

In this sentence store is a verb meaning to keep something for a long time, not a noun meaning a shop.

10. PENALARAN

You want reliable data on air quality in Indonesian cities. Which source is the most reliable?

Jawaban: A. A monitoring report from a government agency or university that explains its methods

A reliable source is accountable, explains how the data was collected, and does not profit from the conclusion. An advertisement wants to sell, and an anonymous post cannot be checked.

11. PENALARAN

"Everyone uses plastic straws, so they can't be harmful." Why is this argument weak?

Jawaban: A. Popularity does not prove that something is harmless.

This is a bandwagon fallacy: something is not true or safe just because many people do it.

12. PENALARAN

Choose the best concluding sentence for a paragraph about the benefits of solar energy in Indonesia.

Jawaban: A. Therefore, solar energy is a promising option for a sunny country like Indonesia.

A concluding sentence sums up the paragraph and links back to its topic. Only the first option does that.
