Argue, Summarise, and Write Formally

Bahasa Inggris · Fase F · Kelas 11, 12

Past perfect, third conditional, modal passive, inversion, argumentative texts, summaries, survey bias, and formal emails.

LEARNING GOALS

1. use the past perfect and the third conditional
2. use modal passives and inversion after negative phrases
3. find the claim, reasons, and counterargument in an argumentative text
4. write a short summary that keeps the main contrast
5. write polite formal requests

PART 1

Earlier in the past

Use the past perfect for the earlier of two past actions: By the time we arrived, the film had already started.

THIRD CONDITIONAL

If + had + past participle, would have + past participle
If she had studied, she would have passed.

PART 2

Passive and inversion

Modal passive: The rules must be followed. Inversion after negative openers: Not only did she pass the exam, but she also got the highest score. Other openers: never, rarely, hardly.

PART 3

Reading an argument

An argumentative or hortatory text has a claim, reasons with evidence, often a counterargument (the other side), and a rebuttal that answers it. Signal words: some people argue, however, nevertheless, therefore.

PART 4

Summarising

A good summary is short, uses your own words, and keeps the main idea and the key contrast. Leave out examples and small details. Avoid adding opinions that are not in the text.

PART 5

Formal writing

Use full words, polite indirect requests, and a clear purpose: "I would be grateful if you could …", "Could you please …", "I look forward to hearing from you." Avoid chat abbreviations like u and ur.

When judging a survey, ask who answered it. An online poll on one website represents that website's visitors, not everyone.
